Space & Naval Warfare Systems Center Awards Contract

SAN DIEGO — Pacific Science & Engineering Group, Inc., of San Diego, California, is being awarded a $25,665,540 Indefinite Delivery, Indefinite Quantity type contract with a cost plus fixed fee pricing arrangement for human systems simulation and engineering research, development, test and evaluation. The goal is to develop and integrate advanced human factors technologies into the design of highly advanced command and control and battle management systems so they are safe, enhance system performance, accommodate the limits of human performance, and exploit the advantages of the human operator in the process. This contract contains no options. There is a minimum guarantee of $769,966. Work will be performed in San Diego. The period of performance is from August 19, 1999 through August 18, 2004. Contract funds will not expire at the end of the current fiscal year. This contract was competitively solicited through the Commerce Business Daily. Two offers were received. Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center San Diego is the contracting activity (N66001-99-D-0050).
